

NOTES ABOUT TRAVEL AND RESORTS

Christmas to Find Winter Colony at Miami Well Filled

Hotel Reservations Indicate Season Is to Have Early Start: Yachts From North Already Are on Hand

Special Correspondence
MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 20.—Prospects indicate that Miami's winter season will be a full swing before the holidays. Instead of immediately following them, as in past seasons, reservations at the hotels show that many Northern families will spend Christmas week in the South. Motorists have been streaming in from Pittsburgh, New York, Chicago and other distant points this week, while Biscayne Bay is dotted with graceful yachts. All of Miami's hotels are now open receiving guests, except the Royal Palm, which will start its winter season New Year's.

Plans are under way to make Miami the leading polo center in the South. Carl G. Fisher, who is well known in polo circles, built a polo field at Alton Beach last season, and some of the best players in the country exercised their ponies here. This winter contests are being arranged with some of the prominent Northern polo teams, such as Aiken, Augusta, Pinehurst and Camden. These events will commence early in January and continue well into the spring. Fifty ponies are already here, among them being those of J. C. Andrews, of West Point, Ind.; Robert H. Hassler, of Indianapolis; Harold E. Tidball, of Dayton, and H. Henry Rader, of Chicago.

To Spend Winter on Yacht
Asa G. Chandler, former Mayor of Atlanta, Ga., and his wife are visiting Miami about their yacht Helana. They will pass the season here, with occasional cruises to Bimini, Nassau and Barbados.

The Hotel Urney was opened for the winter early in the week. W. N. Urney, the owner and manager, has added two floors, making an eight-story building. E. E. Thompson, of New York, has made reservations at the Urney for the season. Although residing at Palm Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson expect to fly to Miami frequently in their airplane. They have several yachts, and will make several cruises to the Bahamas from New York. Harvey N. Bloomer and Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Clark, New York, will arrive here shortly.

New Line to Havana
A steamship line between New York, Miami and Havana, operated by the E. O. Osborn, of New York, and Fred E. Crosby, of Milwaukee, will be inaugurated in January by the City of Miami, a 300-foot vessel engaged in regular trips to England during the winter. This will make the first all-water line operating between New York and Miami, while its Havana sailings will benefit Florida resort visitors, relieving the congestion at Key West.

Jose Torres, a Spanish importer, of Brooklyn, has rented a cottage in Miramar for the season. John M. Anderson, a New York salesman, has leased a suite at the Brickell apartments for occupancy next month.

F. M. Blotner, of New York, figured in a moonlight seaplane flight at Key West recently. With him were Miss Pauline Lyman, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Bowman, of Hartsburg, Pa.

James Munson, of New Haven, is spending the winter at Florida City with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clinton.

Are at Coconut Grove
Mrs. Lawrence Huntington, of Greenwich, Conn., have joined Mr. Huntington at Coconut Grove for the winter. The party will include the Arthur Curtis, James Curtis, of Coconut Grove, was opened this week, but will not be occupied by its owner until January.

George H. Seymour, of Montclair, N. J., who held the Gold Medal last season for catching the largest sailfish in Miami, has returned for the winter and is residing at the Johnson apartments.

W. D. Crawford, of New York, has leased the houseboat Trio for the season, and will pass the winter in Miami and adjacent waters.

The famous yacht Bolo, flying the colors of Felix du Pont, of Wilmington, arrived from the North this week with Mr. and Mrs. James Brodie and Mr. and Mrs. A. Packard Laird aboard. The yacht will soon be taken over by A. H. Sherrard, of New York, who holds a season's charter. Other yacht arrivals of the week include the luxurious Eldorado, belonging to A. C. Woodman, of New York, and the Valeria, with Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Townsend, of Southampton, L. I., aboard. Mrs. S. A. Talmage, of New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Sisson, at Lake Worth for the winter.

Palm Beach Hotels to Be Opened on Dec. 23

Annual Seminole Sun Dance Plans Being Made: Winter Homes Ready for the Owners

Special Correspondence
PALM BEACH, Fla., Dec. 20.—The season starts two days before Christmas with the opening of the Breakers, and the Ponce de Leon, the other Flagler house, will not open until three weeks later. Sidney Mackdock will open the Palm Beach Hotel, next to the Ponce de Leon, shortly after the Breakers opens.

Preliminary plans for the annual Seminole Sun Dance, the chief event of the season at West Palm Beach, were discussed at a meeting last week. The date of the festival were definitely fixed as March 8, 9 and 10. William J. Connors, president of the carnival association, presided.

The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

Lakewood Frolics As Winter Sports Are Aided by Snow

Golfers Still Brave Cold to Make Rounds of Links; Many Affairs Arranged for Christmas Week

Special Correspondence
LAKEWOOD, Dec. 20.—Cold weather this week brought winter sports to the fore again. The Pond of Safety is frozen sufficiently to permit skating and this, with the opening of the Laurel in the Pines skating rink, makes this sport popular. A further touch of winter was given Wednesday, when the first snow storm of the season threw a white mantle over the countryside. Despite the cold, golfers, however, continued to make their rounds on the links of the Country Club, Charles Shekens, of Boston; Edward M. Scudder, of New York, and Hewitt Scudder, of Schenectady, being the week's addition to the Laurel in the Pines contingent of golfers.

The near approach of Christmas is noticeable on every hand as extensive preparations are under way for the entertainment of the large number of visitors who come here for the holiday period. Social activity will take the form of dancing parties at the larger hotels.

Manager Frank F. Shute has issued invitations for two big balls during the week, while there will be similar functions on other evenings at the Laurel House. A Christmas tree, trimmed by the patrons of the hotel, will be a new feature at the Laurel House this year. Gifts presented at the tree dressing party will later be distributed among the poor.

Trap-Shooting Matches
There will be Christmas Day and New Year's Day trap-shooting contests at the traps of the Laurel House Gun Club; this, with a one-day golf tournament at the Country Club, will give the visitors plenty of opportunity for out-of-door sports. Should skating be possible on Lake Canasajo, the Laurel in the Pines will give a skating carnival in the cove, just in front of the hotel.

Mrs. Robert Jamison is giving a large Christmas family party at the Laurel House over the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Jamison, Miss Woodcock, of Montreal, Canada; Mrs. John B. Colton, Summit, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConaghy, of Ithaca, Heights, N. J.; Miss Edith Ayling, Hartford, Conn.; and Miss Annie B. Shepard, and Miss Emma Cole, of East Orange, N. J.

Colonel H. Roman Duval and his daughter, Miss Nannie Campbell Duval, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Grant, Ridgely, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Percy E. Woodcock, Montreal, Canada; Mrs. John B. Colton, Summit, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConaghy, of Ithaca, Heights, N. J.; Miss Edith Ayling, Hartford, Conn.; and Miss Annie B. Shepard, and Miss Emma Cole, of East Orange, N. J.

A new feature to social life here was inaugurated a fortnight ago, when a new club with a membership of those who have winter residences here was formed. It will be a social club for card-playing and out-of-door sports. The club this week leased a beautiful residence on Lake Drive, known as the Miley House. The new members met Monday for organization and elected the following officers and board of governors: President, Major Stanley Whitman; vice-president, James Parry; first second vice-president, Anthony J. Drexel jr.; secretary, Frank X. Sadlier; treasurer, Jesse D. Jones.

On the board of governors are Mrs. L. A. Faler, of New York; Mrs. George Lathrop Pack, Mrs. W. W. Wilcock, Mrs. A. B. Cladin, Mrs. Samuel T. Skidmore, Mrs. Hamilton Hill.

Mrs. H. W. Whitman and Mrs. L. F. Freidrichsen, of New York, who have been spending their winters here for a number of years at the Laurel in the Pines, arrived Wednesday. J. H. Hill, of Pittsburgh, is visiting his mother at the Laurel in the Pines, where Miss Lillian M. Dickinson entertained at luncheon Thursday. Miss Helen L. Leggett and Miss Jane Leggett, of Philadelphia, are here.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel jr. spent this week at High Point, the shooting grounds owned by George J. Gould, on Barneget.

At the Leading Hotels
Spending the week-end at the Laurel in the Pines are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Viscardi and Mrs. F. C. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. J. Becker, of New York City.

At the Florence in the Pines: Mrs. J. Zadek, Mrs. C. Tausig and Mrs. M. C. Buchwald.

At the Manhattan: Mr. and Mrs. E. Klein, Mrs. Edgar Heilprine, Mrs. D. Lichtenstein and family and Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Salzer.

At the Marlborough: A. A. French, S. M. Borden, of Summit, N. J., and Joseph Lawrence and J. W. Gross, of New York City.

At the Palmer: Miss Janet Simons, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Schwartz, of New York, and Miss M. Michel, of Metuchen, N. J.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

Tampa City Park

One of the most beautiful spots in Florida. It has sixty-seven acres of gardens and a mile-long frontage on the Hillsboro River.

Franklin Sidway, of Buffalo; Rear Admiral George F. Winslow and Mrs. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Grant, Ridgely, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Percy E. Woodcock, Montreal, Canada; Mrs. John B. Colton, Summit, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConaghy, of Ithaca, Heights, N. J.; Miss Edith Ayling, Hartford, Conn.; and Miss Annie B. Shepard, and Miss Emma Cole, of East Orange, N. J.

Colonel H. Roman Duval and his daughter, Miss Nannie Campbell Duval, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Grant, Ridgely, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Percy E. Woodcock, Montreal, Canada; Mrs. John B. Colton, Summit, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConaghy, of Ithaca, Heights, N. J.; Miss Edith Ayling, Hartford, Conn.; and Miss Annie B. Shepard, and Miss Emma Cole, of East Orange, N. J.

A new feature to social life here was inaugurated a fortnight ago, when a new club with a membership of those who have winter residences here was formed. It will be a social club for card-playing and out-of-door sports. The club this week leased a beautiful residence on Lake Drive, known as the Miley House. The new members met Monday for organization and elected the following officers and board of governors: President, Major Stanley Whitman; vice-president, James Parry; first second vice-president, Anthony J. Drexel jr.; secretary, Frank X. Sadlier; treasurer, Jesse D. Jones.

On the board of governors are Mrs. L. A. Faler, of New York; Mrs. George Lathrop Pack, Mrs. W. W. Wilcock, Mrs. A. B. Cladin, Mrs. Samuel T. Skidmore, Mrs. Hamilton Hill.

Mrs. H. W. Whitman and Mrs. L. F. Freidrichsen, of New York, who have been spending their winters here for a number of years at the Laurel in the Pines, arrived Wednesday. J. H. Hill, of Pittsburgh, is visiting his mother at the Laurel in the Pines, where Miss Lillian M. Dickinson entertained at luncheon Thursday. Miss Helen L. Leggett and Miss Jane Leggett, of Philadelphia, are here.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel jr. spent this week at High Point, the shooting grounds owned by George J. Gould, on Barneget.

At the Leading Hotels
Spending the week-end at the Laurel in the Pines are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Viscardi and Mrs. F. C. Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. J. Becker, of New York City.

At the Florence in the Pines: Mrs. J. Zadek, Mrs. C. Tausig and Mrs. M. C. Buchwald.

At the Manhattan: Mr. and Mrs. E. Klein, Mrs. Edgar Heilprine, Mrs. D. Lichtenstein and family and Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Salzer.

At the Marlborough: A. A. French, S. M. Borden, of Summit, N. J., and Joseph Lawrence and J. W. Gross, of New York City.

At the Palmer: Miss Janet Simons, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Schwartz, of New York, and Miss M. Michel, of Metuchen, N. J.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rutherford, of New York, have their yacht Sibod III anchored off the docks, it having arrived ahead of its owners. The craft was recently purchased at Marblehead.

Richard Croker, ex-Tammany chieftain, and his wife are on their way to Palm Beach, after spending the summer at Glencair, Ireland. They were passengers aboard the Germania when that steamer was rammed by the freighter Maryland off the Nova Scotia coast.

Mrs. Helen B. Macdonald, of Manchester, L. I., and her two children, Helen and Robert, are occupying their Seabreeze Avenue cottage.

The Lake Park is entertaining Everett Henderson and Robert Nelson, of New York, and James H. Gibbs, of Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kibbie, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. L. A. Levering, also of New York, and Mrs. M. Polk, of Toms River, N. J., arrived in West Palm Beach for the winter months.

Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury arrived at the Salt Air Hotel Saturday, where she will spend three weeks before occupying her ocean front residence.

St. Augustine's Season Opens With Hotel Ball
The chief speaker at the West Palm Beach Rotary Club this week was Dr. Clark Davis, of New York, who spoke on "Americanization of the South."

The winter residence of the late Dr. H. C. Hood, on Lake Train, has been leased for the winter by Mrs. Nettie E. Livermore.